6) For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. 7) I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8) Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing. 2 Timothy 4:6-8 (NIV)

“ It is no surprise to see a fine looking young man in this photo as my memories go away back to when Daniel was very young and his grandma and grandpa Kilby were still alive. His parents were my aunt and uncle and I remember the pride in their faces as they carried Daniel in their arms. He was the sweetest little fella ever and I was so happy for Jennifer and Ken. Our prayers and condolences are with all the family. God bless.

“ Daniel was a regular customer in the CBC Library. I always enjoyed his great big smile as he entered the Library. I enjoyed the many conversations we had. He called me his Lunchtime Teacher as he was often in the Library during his lunchtime. He had a large heart and was always a gentlemen to me. I miss him already. My deepest condolences to his wife Dacarla and 2 children Zoey and Jordan; and to his parents, other family and friends. We were blessed to have known Daniel Kilby.

“ I was blessed to get to know Dan when he attended Columbia Bible College. He was often in my office to talk about academics, life, and faith. I appreciated his passion for Jesus, which overflowed into his compassion for others. I remember him as a very hard worker who was committed to discipleship. He inspired many others with his leadership, authenticity, and enthusiasm. He was truly a man after God's heart.

“ Shared a dorm with Daniel at Columbia Bible College. Between us and one other we were the old boys on campus. Daniel was always upbeat and ready to take part in any event on campus and able to make it a great time, no matter the activity. He was always down to walk to DQ for blizzards and have great conversations about our father Jesus Christ. I called him chan chan, as people thought he looked like Channing Tatum. I am blessed to have been able to spend time and fellowship with Daniel!
