“ We were next door neighbours for many years.
Our oldest sons were best friends during that time.
Their camping trailer was parked on the side of their property ready to go.
To all the family please accept my sincerest sympathy.

“ So many wonderful memories of your dad, he was an early riser and loved to read his true crime magazines. Both your mom and dad were such a big part of our lives growing up. Trips to Collingwood were always fun. Your mom and dad were the most generous hosts. Loved watching movies in the basement.
I am truly sorry for your loss.
Our deepest condolences
Love Andy, Laurie, Jack and Jane xoxo

“ There are so many things I could write about my brother Gilbert. I know that he was a great husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. Also, he was a good son and wonderful brother. He worked hard all his life.

He was a blessing in my life and in all his family lives. I know that we will all feel the void his passing has left, but the memories we have of him will help us to endure until we all meet again.

Rest in Peace my dear brother.

“ My brother was very fortunate to have such a large family that loved and cared for him since his beloved wife Joy passed away. I hope that all the happy memories you have help sustain you at this very sad time and that one day the tears will turn to laughter as you recall each special memory. Your parents were so proud of all of you. I send my deepest sympathy and my thoughts and prayers are with you and your families.

Lots of love,
