“ David, Brian, Pat... I just came across your Mom's obituary and was sad to see that she had passed. I'm sure my Mom is having a grand catch up with her up in heaven and maybe they are even going on some more road trips... I have fond memories growing up in Etobicoke, across the street from you all, having dinners together and other neighbourly stuff. Our Moms were good friends and I know Geri missed Marion when she moved up to Collingwood, though they did keep in touch through the years.

“ Dear Patricia, Brian and David:

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. Aunt Marney always had a smile and a laugh that brought a smile to my face. From figure skating, to skiing, your mom was always game for a new experience. Both sisters (my mom and yours) had wonderful holidays together - Europe, Portugal,,, although I am sure we only heard the good parts of the stories. Your mom's visits to Thunder Bay were wonderful times for all of us - swimming, picnics, blueberry picking, and the drives through the country. Thank you all for sharing such wonderful memories with me.
Lots of love always,
Elizabeth (Ganton) Horne

“ Please accept my sincerest sympathy in the loss of Marion. She was a truly amazing lady with such a loving and generous spirit. Her vitality in everything she did, her love for her family, friends and church were truly an inspiration and kept her much younger than her actual years. She spoke frequently of her wonderful family who she was very proud of. It was a privilege to know her and I will miss her greatly. Cindy Lewis

“ Patricia, Brian and David, and all of Marion's family. Your mother/grandmother was a great source of strength to me right from the time I came to All Saints in 2004. It seemed like I only had to catch her eye and her smile and cheerful demeanour strengthened me. She was such a strong woman and always seemed years younger than her real age. I held her in great affection and will miss her so much. Hilary Astley-Smith
